

2017 Mountain Rescue Association National Spring Conference

Host: Idaho Mountain Search and Rescue

June 2-4 Riverside Hotel Boise, Idaho

Pre-Conference Events:

- A guided climbing excursion to Idaho's tallest peak, Mt. Borah
- Partner and Self Rescue seminar
- Lightweight and Technical Equipment class instructed by Richard Delaney (RopeLab)
- Human Remains Detection training for K9s
- K9 scenarios/skills workshop
- Track Aware class
- Evidence Search Tracking taught by Joel Hardin.

Call for Speakers deadline: March 1st, 2017

Summary of Events:

- Wilderness Medicine
- Clandestine Drug Operations
- Kalston's Side Scan Sonar
- Water Safety
- Emotional First Aid
- Avalanche Safety
- Rescue Rope Testing
- Social events including a banquet
- MRA Business Meeting
- Landing Zone Operator and NOAA
- Idaho State Communication

Areas of Conference Attractions:

hiking, mountain biking, river surfing, kayaking, SUP, fishing, golf, Boise Greenbelt, climbing, Esther Simplot Park, Boise River Whitewater Park, Quinn's Pond, Lucky Peak Recreation Area

Sawtooth National Recreational Area,
Mt. Borah,
Lost River Range, City of Rocks

For registration information visit:
www.imsaru.org/sarcon
Early Bird Registration ends April 15

Boise Tourist and Travel info: www.boise.org